DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Acknowledgment is made to applicant's amendment of claim 1 and the addition of claim 31.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 31 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Park et al. (Pub No 2002/0082543).

- a. With regards to claim 31, Park teaches a method for forming a microneedle (microperforator) device comprising a solidifiable material (polymer) and a drug (therapeutic agent) and shaping the device with a mold (abstract), in which the device has a desired porosity (§ 0016) through which the therapeutic agent is delivered (§ 0121). Park teaches that the solidifiable material includes a viscous material (polylactic acid) and includes a step of molding under vacuum (§ 0146) in order to remove trapped gasses (§ 0018, air bubbles).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-9 and 14-16 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach nor render obvious the subject matter of claim 1 comprising a method for forming a micro-perforator in which shrinking of a solidifiable material is controlled by the formulation of the material or the drying in order to reduce the apex angle of the formed micro-perforator in addition to the other limitations present in the claim. Claims 2-9 and 14-16 depend from claim 1 and are therefor also allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 01/19/2011 with respect to claim 31 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

a. With regards to applicant's argument that Park does not teach that the vacuum method removes air bubbles, this argument is not persuasive. Park teaches that the solidifiable material includes a viscous material (polylactic acid) and includes a step of molding under vacuum (§ 0146) in order to remove trapped gasses (§ 0018, air bubbles).

7. Applicant's arguments, see response, filed 01/19/2011, with respect to claims 1-9 and 14-16 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of the claims has been withdrawn.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 1742

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
